

WINTER TALKS

Through this series of informative talks, examine New York City through a variety of lenses that provide insight on current issues, the city's past, and a look toward the future.

AN INSIDE LOOK AT THE DESIGN OF THE NEW 9/11 TRIBUTE CENTER: TUESDAY, JAN. 31

Hear how the original design of the new 9/11 Tribute Center- initiated by the September 11th Families' Association- integrates the stories of survivors, family members and rescue workers.

MARKING TIME, MARKING PLACE: LOWER MANHATTAN THEN & NOW: TUESDAY, FEB. 7

CultureNOW president Abby Suckle presents an illustrated talk on their urban archeology project and the creation of a map showing New York City over time.

THE CLIMATE MUSEUM: TUESDAY, FEB. 21

Join Miranda Massie, Founder and Director of the Climate Museum, to learn about their initiative to create the first museum in the U.S. dedicated to climate issues and education.

GEORGIA O'KEEFFE'S NEW YORK YEARS: TUESDAY, MAR. 7

Artist / Educator Marla Lipkin revisits Georgia O'Keeffe's magical early years in Gotham, where she became a major exhibiting artist.

CITY ON A GRID: HOW NEW YORK BECAME NEW YORK: TUESDAY, MAR. 28

Author Gerard Koepfel discusses the history of a uniquely New York marvel: the street grid of Manhattan.